GREGORY H. WOODS, United States District Judge:

On December 24, 2020, the parties submitted a stipulation extending the deadline for Defendant to answer or otherwise respond to the complaint. Dkt. No. 9. Defendant's response to the complaint was due no later than December 23, 2020. The Court declines to endorse the parties' stipulation.

The parties are reminded that they must review and comply with the Court's Individual Rules of Practice in Civil Cases. Pursuant to Individual Rule 1(E), all requests for adjournments or extensions of time must be made by letter and must state: (1) the original due date; (2) the number of previous requests for adjournment or extension of time; (3) the reason for the current request; (4) whether the adversary consents and, if not, the reason given by the adversary for refusing to consent; and (5) proposed alternative dates and, absent an emergency, the request must be made at least two business days prior to the original due date. Pursuant to Individual Rule 1(F), immediately following the filing of any proposed order or stipulation, parties are directed to submit a joint letter to the Court, stating (1) the reason for the request that the Court enter the proposed order or stipulation; (2) the position of each of the parties with respect to the proposed order or stipulation; (3) the basis for the Court's legal authority to enter the proposed order or stipulation; and (4) any other information that the parties believe would provide context for the Court's evaluation of the request. Any renewed application must comply with the Court's Individual Rules of Practice.

SO ORDERED.
